ANNATA	PUNTEGGIO	RIVISTA	RECENSIONE
2018	93	JAMES SUCKLING	"Attractive and fresh notes of ripe red and dark berries with blood orange, chocolate, leather and spices. Medium- to full-bodied and dry with fine and polished tannins. Sleek and velvety. Drink or hold."
	92	WINEENTHUSIAST	"The nose is sweet and floral, full of cherries, vanilla and candied oranges, but sanguine, herbaceous undertones provide balance. Cherries hang around on the rich but lively palate, which has hints of copper and chili pepper. Tightly coiled tannins feel ready to spring." – Danielle Callegari
	91	WINECRITIC.com	"Molto maturo al naso mostra note di prugne nere, more, olive, maggiorana, foglie di tè nero, coriandolo e bacche di ginepro. Corpo pieno, tannini morbidi ed un finale di media distensione." R.V.
	90	GUIDA ORO VERONELLI
	tttt	GUIDA VITAE A.I.S.
	94	LUCA MARONI
2017	92	WINESPECTATOR	"Rich and thick, with plum, blackberry, fruitcake, leather, iron and tobacco flavors. Shows lively acidity, with dense, dusty tannins lending support, while the flavors linger and wind down on the succulent aftertaste. Offers fine balance overall, with a slight edge to the tannins. Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Drink now through 2032." -Bruce Sanderson
	92	JAMES SUCKLING	"Aromas of ripe cherries and red plums with sweet spices, hibiscus and orange peel. Polished and velvety with medium to full body and chocolaty texture. Crunchy and bright with a dry, earthy finish. Drink or hold."

2016	92	ROBERTPARKER	"An international blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, the Castello di Gabbiano 2016 Alleanza Cavaliere d'Oro is hearty, rich and concentrated. The wine shows good balance, something that can be counted on in this excellent vintage, with dark fruit flavors, well-managed tannins and just enough acidity to keep it lively and food-friendly, especially with a classic pappardelle with wild boar. It will get the job done no matter what meat dish you serve next to it."
	92	JAMES SUCKLING	"Aromas of blackcurrants and walnuts with some bark and mushrooms. Undergrowth is a good descriptor. Medium body with round, juicy tannins and a delicious finish. Creamy, polished texture. Delicious now, but will be better in a year or two. Try after 2021."
2015	93	JAMES SUCKLING	"This is a big, rich red with aromas and flavors of currants, chocolate and walnuts. Full body. Round, chewy tannins. Flavorful finish. This needs a few years to come together. Try after 2020." J.S.
	90	ROBERTPARKER	"The 2015 Alleanza Cavaliere d'Oro is a rich and full-bodied blend of 60% Merlot and 40% Cabernet Sauvignon with darkly concentrated fruit, backed by the soft exuberance and plump ripeness that defines this vintage. You really can't go wrong with a wine like this, because it delivers on all its basic promises. It is not particularly territory-specific, but it does hit all those hot buttons for a blended red wine from Tuscany with ripeness, richness and luscious dark concentration. After almost 18 months in French barrique and then 15 months in the bottle, there is still some astringency to the tannins, and that bitterness is worth mentioning." M.Larner
	91	FALSTAFF
	89	VINOUS	"The 2015 Alleanza, Gabbiano's 100% Merlot, is dark, juicy and forward. Black cherry, plum, spice, new leather, chocolate and sweet oak are front and center.
			Alleanza is an attractive, juicy wine to drink now and over the next handful of years." A.Galloni
2013	93	JAMES SUCKLING	"A decadent nose with plenty of toasted oak as well blackcurrants, blackberries, brambles, spices, vanilla and forest floor. Full body, dense, ripe and grippy tannins, a fine line of acidity and a long finish. Needs time. Better in 2020."
	89	WINE ENTHUSIAST	"This Merlot has aromas of cedar, vanilla and black fruit. The round palate evokes blackberry jam, mocha and clove alongside polished tannins." —K.O.

91	JAMESSUCKLING.COM	"A round and flavorful red with dark berries, chocolate and toasted oak. Lots of vanilla flavors, a full body and a fresh finish. The ripe fruit supports the wood. Drink now, but this will be better in 2016."
90	VINOUS	"The 2012 Alleanza, Gabbiano's 60% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon blend, is plump, juicy and forward. Black cherry, plum, herb, smoke and licorice notes wrap around the palate. Supple and expressive, the 2012 is a solid choice for drinking now and over the next few years. Although not the most exciting Bordeaux blend in Tuscany, the Alleanza is very nicely done."

Gold-Diplom EXPOVINA

91	WINE ENTHUSIAST	"This delicious Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon blend offers an alluring fragrance of blackberry, red currant and thyme punctuated by tarry, leather aromas. The palate shows ample plum flavor layered with chocolate and cinnamon accents, as well as round, polished tannins." K.O.
91	TASTED	Andreas Larsson "Very dark purple colour; the nose is young and intense with hints of new oak, white pepper, vanilla, dark berries, blackcurrant, cherry and aromatic herbs; the palate has a good density and concentration, meaty and dark fruity with some new oak, ripe, but present tannin, very fine length; slightly young and tight today, but with fine potential."
91	Markus del Monego	"Dark, purple red with violet hue and black centre. Opulent nose with juicy fruit, blackberries and mulberries, mild spices and elegant oak. Opulence continues on the palate, well structured with good length."

	91	VINOUS	Antonio Galloni "Gabbiano's 2010 Alleanza, a Merlot/Cabernet blend, is quite pretty. Mocha, plums, blackberry jam, cloves and French oak all meld together in the glass. The style is opulent, fruit-driven and laced with considerable new French oak, but it all works nicely. The rich, resonant finish is especially appealing. The 2010 is 60% Merlot and 40% Cabernet Sauvignon/Franc."
	92	GUIDA ORO I Vini di Veronelli	Daniel Thomases
2009	SILVER AWARD	DECANTER ASIA WINE AWARDS	"Vibrant and stylish with sweet ripe cassis, herbal leaf and white chocolate. Intensely smoky with blackcurrants and liquorice underneath"
	93	JAMESSUCKLING.COM	"Beautiful currant and hints of chocolate red pepper character. Full and velvety with silky tannins and a long finish. Best wine ever from here. Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Drink or hold"
	4 GRAPPOLI	BIBENDA 2013	"Rubino cupo, di pingue consistenza. Naso compresso con profumi di more, ciliegie, viola, menta, vegetale nobile e note di cioccolato amara. Bocca virile, con potenza esprime calore, vellutata freschezza e un tannino fitto."

	92	WINE ENTHUSIAST	"Alleanza is a Merlot-based wine with small portions of Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon. It opens with bright cherry flavors backed by delicate shadings of dry mineral, exotic spice and natural rubber. It's deep and penetrating and should age 3-5 more years." _ML
	89	WINE SPECTATOR	"Plenty of new oak adds clove, vanilla and smoke elements to this wine's core of black cherry and blackberry flavors. The tannins are assertive, but there's sweetness to match. This is too oaky for me, but will find its fans. Merlot, Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon. Best from 2013 through 2022." -BS

The 70-30 blend consists of Merlot and Sangiovese and the wine is seductively redolent of wild berries, exotic spice, soft chocolate and mild tobacco. The plush mouthfeel wins points thanks to the smooth and silky nature of the finish." M.L. (12/15/2010)

	88	WINEENTHUSIAST – January 2009	“Made in collaboration with Beringer’s Ed Sbragia, this super Tuscan blend of Merlot (75%), Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon is loaded with smoky tones of oak, leather, spice and chocolate fudge. The fruit is in there (behind the wood) and is redolent of blackberry and dried currant”

	Rated 91	WINEENTHUSIAST – April 2008	“Alleanza is a winemaking venture between Giancarlo Roman and Napa’s Ed Sbragia (formerly of Beringer). Their combined efforts have produced a rich, modern wine bursting with cherry, blackberry, plum, oak, vanilla and exotic spice”
Rated 92	WINE REVIEW ONLINE – May 27, 2008	“A blend of 95% Merlot and 5% Sangiovese transforms this Alleanza (Alliance) into a sort of reverse Super Tuscan. The 2004 Alleanza shows a lovely, deep, black cherry and spice nose that leads to richly textured berry flavors, with hints of anise, toasted oak and sweet spice and a moderate 14% alcohol. Here is a wine of great depth, potential and value”

	Rated 88	WINEENTHUSIAST April 2003	"The people at Beringer, which owns Gabbiano, had a lot to do with this super Tuscan, which explains the heavy dose of oak on the nose and palate. Nonetheless, it's full, expressive and earthy, with an easy mouthfeel and ample cherry and berry flavors. Spicy, tannic and still kicking—but maturing fast"
	Rated 92	ATLANTA WINE REPORT March/April 2003	"Two panelists gave this wine nearly a perfect score due to the wine's ability to offer richness and power while maintaining balance and finesse. Regarding the finish, one taster said 'the flavors won't leave. Wow!'"
