

CASTELLO di GABBIANO

ESTABLISHED 1124

Ivano Reali

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Born in Romagna, raised and educated in Switzerland, after undertaking a business career in Switzerland and the United States, Ivano Reali returns to Italy in 2000 to run the Castello di Gabbiano winery, as Managing Director of the company.

Working hand in hand with Gabbiano's winemaking and viticultural teams, Ivano directed the complete renewal of all estate vineyards including new plantings, and managed improvements to the estate's winemaking facilities and practices, bringing state-of-the-art technology and equipment to the winemaking mix, always with an eye to excellence.

Of the winery he says "Our traditions, terroir, history and culture are our greatest strengths. By remaining passionate about these core attributes, but also open to new innovations, Castello di Gabbiano will continue to realize its full potential as a world class producer of authentic and stylish wines of distinction."
