

Prosecco

D . O . C .

Part of “Cavaliere d’Oro” wines collection - a selection of wine from the very best winemaking regions across Italy - this Prosecco DOC is produced from the Glera grape in the region of Veneto. By tradition the Prosecco DOC Brut is a classic wine for toasting.

Winemaking

Made by the Glera grapes, the still wine passes through a second fermentation to create the bubbles that we love in Prosecco.

The wine is made in Brut style. Fragrant notes of floral cultivate a pleasantly sweet aroma with ripe mango and notes of honey. On palate this wine has a low level of acidity and exhibits a strong essence of tropical fruits on the long lasting finish, with a mouthwatering finale that begs another sip. A medium bodied wine with frothy bubbles.
